

Albert Gyan

As one of the founding members of the NGO Committee on Financing for Development, He has been working with members of the Global Social Economy Group (GSEG) to facilitate the civil society space and generate greater civil society interest and advocate for an FdD process that can live up to the expectations of the transformative nature of the SDGs and African Union Agenda 2063. He has been assisting ADIN in monitoring all meetings and consultations around the Post-2015 Development Agenda at the UN HQ in New York, ensuring that ADIN is able to actively build and nurture a network of African CSOs around the FfD process and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

For more than two decades, he has been working in some 30 countries alongside a variety of grassroots groups and civil society coalitions advocating at the European Parliament, the U.S. Congress and at the United Nations, in executive director capacity, or as the Permanent Representative, as well as a consultant on a wide range of economic justice and climate change issues. Since the FFD PrepComs of 2001. He has in one form or the other, been party to the shaping of criterion and principles for the selection of CSO/NGO speakers at GA hearings and roundtables.
